

78S3
78 South 3rd Avenue,
Brooklyn, NY 11249

Type: High End Residential
Client: Red Rock Investment
Year: 2014
Cost: $3.2 million
Project Size: 5,103 G.S.F.

Trying to set up a new standard of living, 78S3 is a new contemporary multi-family residential project with 3 distinctive floor-through apartments at every level. The building architecture and interiors, with its use of clean lines, forms and materials, achieves a simple and elegant addition to the Williamsburg building design scene.

The use of large expanded floor to ceiling glazing provides panoramic views of the street and surrounding neighborhood. The penthouse unit and its outdoor terrace introduces our unique take on an infinity roof terrace for incredible views of the Manhattan skyline and Williamsburg's amalgam of design infrastructure, city life and urbanity.

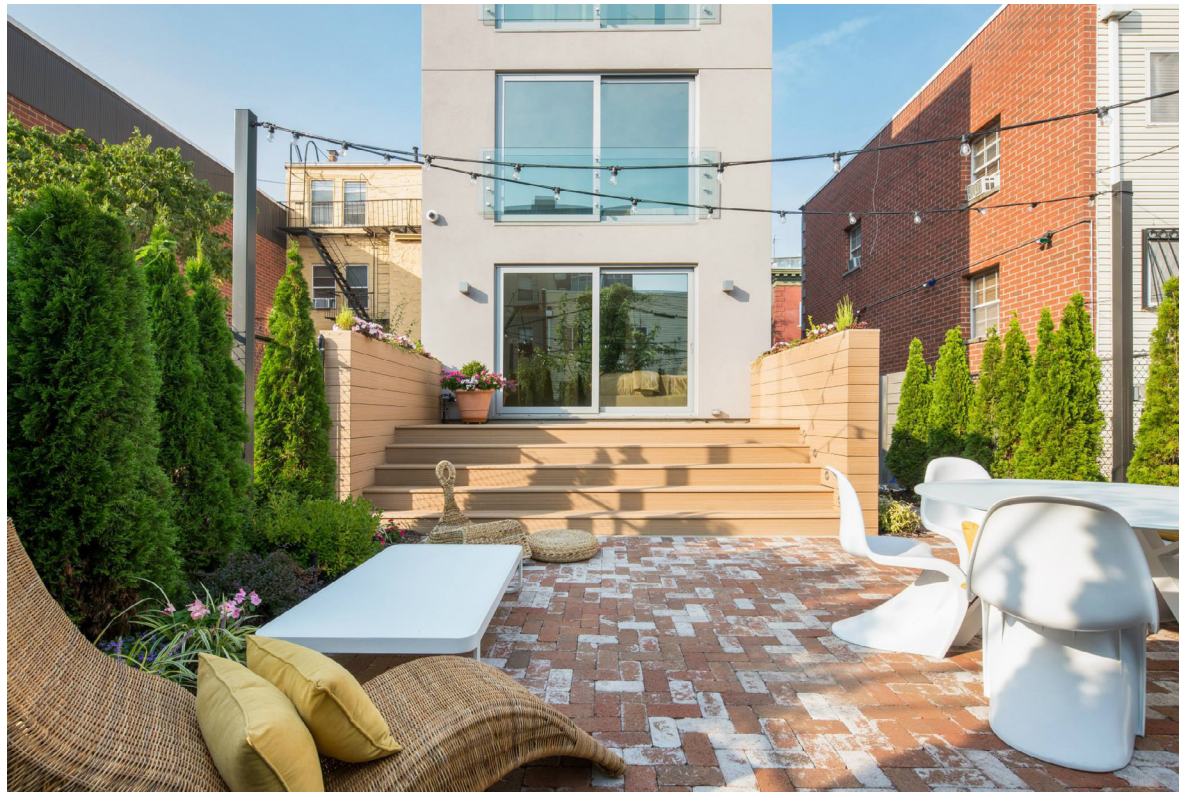

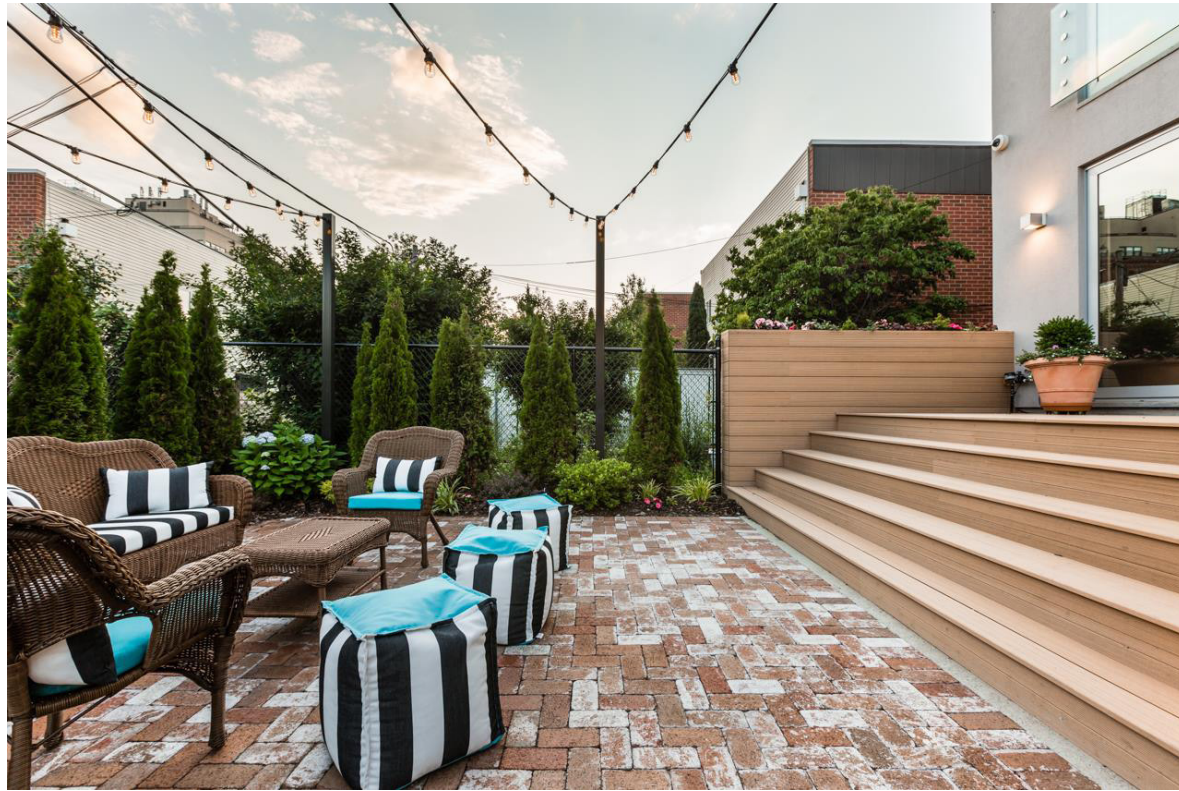

Ready for family lifestyle or a Pied-a-terre, 78S3 is that unique project where every exterior and interior detail and need has been addressed in a contemporary residential experience.
